41 Mewburn Road

Banbury, Banbury

Hortons are delighted to offer this, what we believe to be, quite unique offering to the market, in the form of an extended and reconfigured two bedroomed bungalow.

Modest from the kerbside, yet opening into a large, beautifully light and stylish open plan modern bungalow, appealing to an array of suitable buyers. The current owner has done a superb job in renovating the property over the years, culminating in what you see today, a stylish, spacious, easy space to enjoy living in.

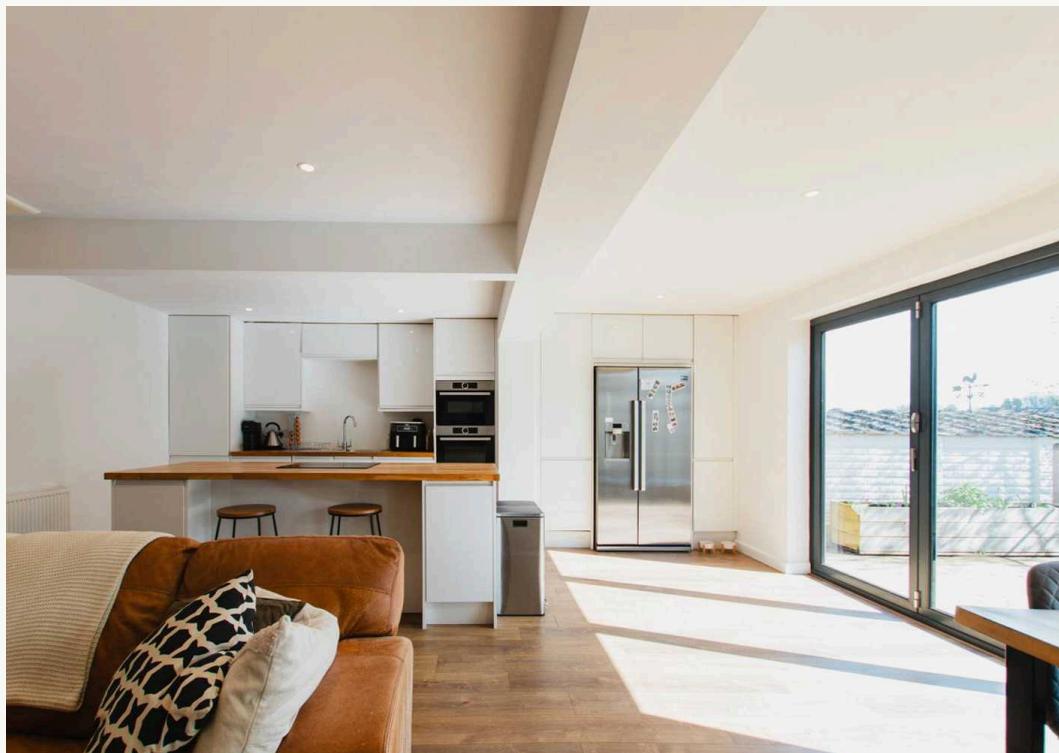

The property comprises of an entrance porch, entrance hallway, two double bedrooms, refitted bathroom, large open plan kitchen, dining, living room, conservatory, private garden, garage and driveway parking.

Both bedrooms are good sizes, and located at the front the house, meaning the main area of residence is well placed at the rear of the property, being very private and peaceful. The bifold doors of the open plan reception room open fully to one side, creating a seamless flow from inside to outside. This house would be amazing for entertaining family and friends, being able to flow out onto the decking area via the bifolding doors.

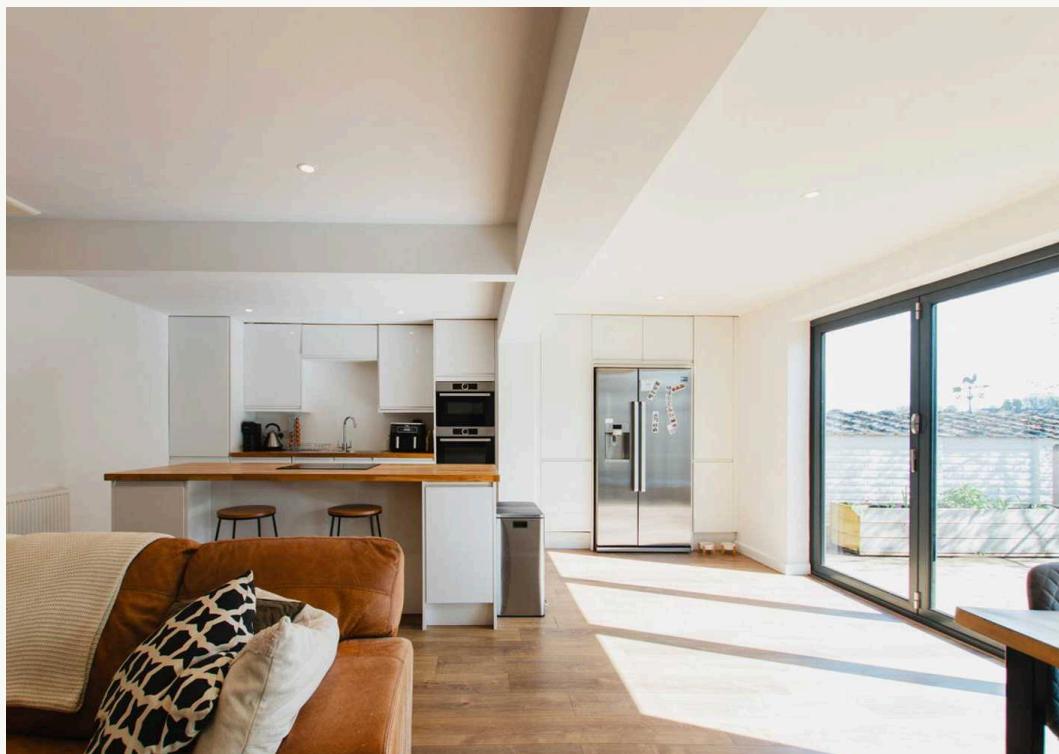

The kitchen is as expected, having white goods under counter, fridge freezer, oven, hob, sink, dishwasher, and is a sociable layout with the kitchen island having breakfast bar on one side.

It's not often that a bungalow comes to the market in this style, and will appeal to a variety of buying positions due to it's brilliant location. There are daily amenities within walking distance at the top of the
